

Sermon Notes

None Greater, None Nearer

Isa. 57:15

Joel Beeke, "The knowledge of God in the _____ transforms a person."

It is possible to know God, but not by human effort or reason, but through divine _____ . You can know God because He has willed to be known, and in willing to be known, He has revealed _____

The fullest exposition of who God is and what He is like does not come through philosophy or natural theology, but through the _____ of the our Lord Jesus Christ

The closer we draw to Him, the more we _____ Him, the more we know Him, the closer we walk with Him, the closer we _____ with Him, the more we know Him.

II. None Greater

A. The High and _____ One

B. Who Inhabits _____

Better translation: Who lives _____; Father of eternity (9:6)

C. Whose Name is _____

God is so glorious and so holy, that no man sees His _____ and lives!

Conclusion

1. God is absolute _____ - The AM WHO I AM
2. God is infinite, without limitation, in _____ or _____.
3. God is perfect –He has no room to _____, and He cannot be diminished.

III. None Nearer

A. And I dwell _____

B. With Him who is of a _____ and humble spirit

C. None Greater, None _____

The greatest demonstration of His nearness is the _____

The eternal God is in every _____ of every day

The infinite God is personal, He knows my _____

He is the God who carries you in His arms!

Sermon Notes

He shares His _____ He gives life. He revives. He encourages. He gives
_____. This deeply personal God is the God who loves us, gave His Son for us, gave us life in His Son, gave us _____.

